VOL. VI. NO. 26.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

From Chicago comes an interview with Mr. Corrigan, stating that the Ingleside track is soon to be opened. This has been the rumor here for several weeks. In fact, a force of men is now at work at the handsome track, near the ocean, repainting the buildings, fixing up fences and making things ready.

A positive announcement of the reopening, however, is somewhat premature. In order to permit of this being done, an order would have to be passed by the supervisors repealing the ordinance of the last board, under which the track was forced to close.

As yet there is no indication that this is to be done. In fact, it was but last Monday that Supervisor Tobin introduced an order prohibiting horse racing, dog races and prize fighting; in fact, the public selling of pools of whatever nature. This order was passed to print, and on Monday next, with the mayor's signature, will become a law. Just how Ingleside or any other track can conduct operations with this new ordinance, and the old one, too, on the books, it is difficult to see. Besides, aside from the stabling conveniences, Tanforan is just as good as Ingleside.

Another statement credited to Mr. Corrigan, but which he probably did not make, is that in the event of Ingleside opening, the three tracks would share the dates. Under the present agreement this is not possible. Oakland is entitled to half the time, and Tanforan or Ingleside to the other half.—San Francisco Examiner.

Eastin & Larabie have a string of eight horses in Peter Wimmer's charge at Louisville, as follows:

Kinley Mack, b. c. 4, by Islington—Songstress.
MacLeod of Dare, b. c. 4, by Candlemas—Julia L.

High Order, b. c. 3, by Order—Tongese.
Flying Torpedo, ch. c. 2, by Hanover—Gypsy.
Sharpshooter, ch. c. 2, by Fonso—Tongese.
Max Bendix, ch. c. 2, by Candlemas—Julia L.
Talcose, ch. c. 2, by Owes—Beth Broeck.
Julia Hanover, br. f. 2, by Hanover—Julia Kinney.

Mr. Larabie, as does also trainer Wimmer, thinks best of Sharpshooter. He is a dark chestnut, somewhat above the average in size, standing 15.1, weighing 1,025 pounds, which is probably seventy-five pounds heavier than his three-year-old half brother, High Order. He has been highly tried and has shown his owners sufficient speed to cause them to engage him heavily in the eastern stake events. The luck of Eastin & Larabie has become proverbial. Each year they have shown up with a crack-a-jack two-year-old.

With the meeting at the Fair Grounds half over, and the end not far off, owners and trainers are commencing to look about and make plans for the coming season. There are some 250 owners here from all sections, and when they leave they will scatter all over the country. The easterners will, with but few exceptions, ship direct to Washington, where the Benning meeting opens a week after the Crescent City Jockey Club closes its gates. The majority will, of course, ship direct to Memphis and dodge the Little Rock game. Some will go to Chicago, others to St. Louis, while the gathering from Texas will be content to remain in the south and take in the bush meetings. As a matter of fact, horses that are raced all winter are only fit for the bush game. There are some that can win on any track, but they can be counted on one's fingers. The majority are heards, and by the time the meeting is over they are jaded and all out from the constant racing and pounding over the track when it is hard and the tearing they get when it is heavy.—New Orleans Picayune.

The stewards of the jockey club met Monday afternoon and elected the following officials for the year 1900:

Chairman—August Belmont.
Vice-chairman—James R. Keene.
Secretary and treasurer—F. K. Sturgis.
Starter—C. J. Fitzgerald.

Judges—R. W. Simmons and Clarence McDowell.

Clerk of scales—H. G. Crickmore.

Timer—W. H. Barretto.

Paddock and patrol judge—J. L. Hall.

For the position of handicapper and forfeit clerk W. L. Vesburgh was chosen.

This disposes of the reports current at various times during the winter to the effect that Captain Rees was slated for a position as judge on the tracks governed by the Jockey Club, and we shall no doubt see him, as usual, at Hawthorne when racing opens there. It is well that it is so, for while he would no doubt be a good man for the eastern tracks, he is of too much benefit to western racing to be spared.

It was expected that racing dates for the season would be announced, but the matter was deferred.

TRAINER ROGERS' BIG TASK.

Probably one of the strongest stables in the east this season will be that of M. Murphy of Philadelphia, which will be trained by W. M. Rogers. At present the stable is located near Elkton, Md., but the string will soon be removed to the Clason Farm, near Menmouth Park, N. J., which was recently purchased by Mr. Murphy. This gentleman has just bought the good race horses Richard J. and Our Gertie from Mr. Rogers. Richard J. showed himself a good handicap horse last year, although he only started a few times late in the season. He is a horse of wonderful speed and is a great stretch runner. Our Gertie was a disappointment several times to racegoers, but this was probably on account of her hard campaign in the West. She finally redeemed herself at the end of the season by winning at Aqueduct, and is undoubtedly a high-class mare. In the stable also is the good horse Rafaello, who beat some of the best at Morris Park during the fall meeting.

These are the stars of the stable, provided always that some of the two-year-olds do not come on and beat their record. A wall bred lot they are, and under Mr. Rogers' careful handling they may be expected to show the best that they are capable of at some time during the season.

Richard J., Our Gertie, Rafaello, Young Dixon and Kensington represent the aged division, and they are all speedy and look like giving a good account of themselves in any sprinting company.

In the three-year-old division are San Cecilia, Sir Money Bags, Cyrano, Tizzoncina (full sister to Algol), M. M. and Rocklight. All are doing well and several are winners and have a good chance to score brackets this year.

The two-year-olds are as follows: Bay colt by Sir Modred—Cloister, bay colt by Tyrant—Darasha, bay colt by Golden Garter—Guilia, chestnut colt by Kismet—Clay Stockton, chestnut colt by Bassettlaw—Silverine, bay colt by Fitzjames—Sekanet, bay colt by Salvator—Mileta, black filly by Charade—Trousseau, bay filly, by Jils Johnson—Mary Greenwood, bay filly, by Candlemas—Duchess of Towers, chestnut filly, by Uncle Jess—Danegeld, brown filly, by Watercress—Cachuca, chestnut filly, by Masterlode—Alarm mare, bay colt, by Kelston Glengaber closed strongly. None Such ran a good race for a mile and is greatly improved. Twinkle Twink showed speed. Tom Cromwell ran a poor race and looked dry and stale. Los Prietos was short but showed considerable speed and is likely to win soon in such company.

TRAINER ROGERS' BIG TASK.

—Miss Easton, bay filly, by Tenny—Maxine Elliott, chestnut filly, by Eothen—Alaia H., chestnut filly, by Eothen—Mary K., and bay
filly, by Eothen—Fright.

These eighteen youngsters, all well bred and some of them with pedigrees that ought certainly to make them breadwinners, are in fine condition and a very smooth-looking lot indeed.

Mr. Rogers is enthusiastic over several of these youngsters, and expects them to "make good" in the several stake events in which they are engaged.

The Golden Garter and Sir Modred colts and the three fillies by Eothen are especially promising.

Of the eighteen two-year-olds ten are fillies, and it will be seen that Mr. Rogers does not share the usual prejudice which trainers have against them. Certainly the fillies are well bred and their conformation would suggest that possibly an Imp, a Cleophas or a Briar Sweet might be among the number. The Watercross —Cachuca filly, the Tenny filly and the filly
by Charade—Trousseau all are built on racy lines.

The weather in Maryland has been fine and the entire string looks like coming to hand early.

Mr. Rogers also has in his charge several of the Pepper stable's two-year-olds which have just been sent on from Kentucky. These are doing well and may be expected to give a good account of themselves.—Morning Telegraph.

Matt Hogan ran a grand, game race. He came with a rush on the outside and Walsh outrode Devin in the finish. J. V. Hays has improved and is a consistent colt. Beautiful Bill is a slow beginner and likes a longer journey. Isaline ran nearly a mile in false breaks, and was out off and bumped in the homestretch. Blooming Chance got off flying and showed high speed for nearly five furlongs then had enough. Regelong was a false alarm and showed but little speed.
Naples did well for three furlongs.

Announcement Extraordinary.

The New Idea Turf Club of Chicago begs to announce to its patrons and the many followers of the sport throughout the United States and Canada that it has opened offices at 84 Adams street, Dexter Building, Suite 90, and will be prepared, on and after January 29, to furnish to its clients valuable inside racing information on new and novel lines and by methods never before attempted in this or any other country. So confident are we of our ability to do all that we claim that we will send our selections for three days free of all charges, save telegraphic transmissions in order to convince the public that we thoroughly understand every detail of this, our specialty.
We send three entirely different wires, viz: No. 1. Our regular daily costing $1.00 per day; $5.00 per week. No. 2. A guaranteed special, naming jockey and average price hours before the race; charges, $1.00. No. 3 is our extra special, costing $2.00, in which we name the horses only, two, three, or one, two as they finish, also names of jockeys and average prices. We call the attention of players at New Orleans and San Francisco to this advertisement. All moneys payable in advance and refunded if Nos. 2 and 3 specials are not winners. For further particulars call at office where a competent manager will furnish all necessary information.

This race should do him good. Foucon made no apparent effort with Rush Fields until it was too late. The horse came very fast when allowed to do so.
